The Fruit of the Spirit: PATIENCE

You will have heard of the prayer: "Lord, grant me patience, but hurry!"

Patience isn't popular in an instant age where we can communicate electronically with any part of the world in seconds. Also, it's regarded as a negative and passive thing to do – contrasted with going out there and getting something done.

That's not how the scripture understands patience; much less how it uses it when referring to God. So what is patience? Well, come and see.
