

Join us for Breakfast

18 November @ 08h30

In the Parish House Hall

Come and meet two young women from different backgrounds as they share their stories of finding faith in Jesus and friendship in Him in the face of humanity. The title of the talk is:

Sister in Christ
– the humanity

From Penny

Thank you ALL for having made my birthday such a special occasion. I have been getting thank you notes and notes of appreciation from the most unexpected sources.

The truth is actually that it was made so special because everyone took part, thank you to my whole extended family at St Luke's and abroad for everything that you all did. Thank you for the food, the cards, the flowers and ALL the gifts ...

THANK YOU !!

Meeting Jesus

'Do you remember meeting Jesus for the first time? Was it a struggle, a glorious life-changing moment, or a bit of both? Importantly, did that meeting become an ongoing friendship which flavours every day of your life?'

Now, as Advent approaches, may be a good time to review and renew that meeting and that relationship - starting with Peter Lee's input on Sunday.'

Welcome to Bishop Peter Lee
