

The Library:

Many of you know that we have a Library in the Crawford Centre and have been making good use of the Christian literature and the secular books available. To all newcomers to St Luke's - WELCOME - and please do avail yourselves of this facility.

A book table is set out at the tea/coffee service area from which we encourage you to choose one (or more to read), but please note that you need to sign out the book/s in the file which is inside the Library. No time restrictions on how long a book is out, but please do eventually return it!! The signing out of all other books in the Library follows the same procedure.

A request for help with the book table - please speak to Linda Williams. (I will not always be available in the next 3 months while Allan is on sabbatical.)

A second request to please return books you have forgotten about - some date back to 2015!!

'Lord, Teach Us To Pray'

The Apostles had seen Jesus walk on water. They had seen him calm the storm, and they had seen him raise the dead.

Yet when they came to Jesus with a request, it was not to ask him to empower them do the same. Rather, it was, 'Lord, teach us to pray'. They had seen how powerful his prayers were.

It was prayer, they knew, that made the miracles happen. It was prayer that enabled Jesus to stay so close to the Father. Jesus often spent a whole night in prayer.

The disciples had seen the source of his power, and wanted to share it. We should too.

Resurrection Way Community

Thursday 8—Monday 12 March 2018

This is an opportunity to reconnect deeply with God. An individually directed retreat allows time to reflect on your life and to become more aware of God's on-going invitation. The retreat is in silence and you meet with your director once a day to talk about your particular journey with God.

The 4 day retreat is ideal for beginners and for those who do not have time for a longer retreat.

The retreat direction team will be led by Sue Tinsley. She is trained and accredited by the Jesuit Institute School of Spirituality.
